opening, 50% of the total booth fee will be non-refundable. Upon cancellation later than 45 days before the show opening, the total booth fee will be forfeited.

The organizer is authorized to move, shorten, temporarily close entirely, or cancel the trade fair for cause (e.g., earthquake, typhoon, flood, war, strike, demonstration and public health emergency).

The organizer is entitled to refrain from carrying out the event under equitable discretion and with due consideration of the justified interests of the exhibitors if its commercial viability does not appear secure. Cancellation annuls the contracting parties' reciprocal performance obligations; cancellation does not entail any claims for refund of expenses already incurred or compensation for damages. However, insofar as it is responsible for the cancellation the organizer shall refund any payments already made to it by the exhibitor for services that had not yet been performed at the time of cancellation. In the event of complete or partial relocation or shortening, the Agreement shall be considered as concluded for the modified duration unless the exhibitor objects in writing by a deadline of two weeks from notification of the change. The agreed prices shall not be reduced. All services shall be performed within the scope of the available capacities.

If the organizer is forced to shorten an event that has already begun due to force majeure or for other reasons for which it is not responsible, the exhibitor shall not be entitled to complete or partial refund or to any waiver of the participation fee.

● Space Assignment Policy

The following criteria are applied in booth location assignments:

- Space requirements and exhibits' size (to assure optimum utilization of available space, large space will be assigned first).
- Date of the application received by the Organizer (Space will be allocated on a first-come-first-served basis).
- The exhibition area should be a multiple of 9 sqm.
